

CHRISTOPHER FUNK

cpfunk@iastate.edu | (319) 450-1088 | Monticello, IA | www.cpfunk.com

Education

Iowa State University

Bachelor of Electrical Engineering Major (GPA: 4.00)

Anticipated: May 2027

Ames, IA

Kirkwood Community College

Engineering Transfer Courses (GPA: 4.00)

Aug. 2023 – Aug. 2024

Cedar Rapids, IA

Kirkwood Community College

AAS, Automotive Technology (GPA: 3.98)

Aug. 2019 – May 2021

Cedar Rapids, IA

Work Experience

Holmes Transmission and Auto Repair Inc.

Automobile Technician

Sept. 2018 – Aug. 2024

Monticello, IA

- Applied problem-solving skills and general knowledge of automotive systems to diagnose using various diagnostic tools (voltmeters, oscilloscopes, etc.).
- Collaborated with a team of automotive technicians on diagnoses and repairs.
- Explained vehicle malfunctions and repairs to customers.

MidAmerican Energy

Protection & Controls Intern

May. 2026 – Present

Davenport, IA

- Currently working with engineers at MidAmerican Energy's Protection and Control department to create Python utilities for automating the creation of reports that were previously maintained manually.
- Created a Python utility script for importing data from digital relay settings files and a database to automatically update the data in a spreadsheet containing feeder relay information.

Skills

- Experience with the programming language C.
- Experience with scripting and creating user interfaces in Python and MATLAB.
- Some experience with the programming language C++.

Awards

- 2021 SkillsUSA National Championship Automotive Service Technology Gold Medalist
- 2021 Michell1/ASE Technician of the Future